BALTIMORE April 8 .- The Maryand Legislature will be asked to pass a "search-and-seizure" act at its next session, Dr. George W. Crabbe, superintendent of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League, announces. Dr. Crabbe states, however, that neither he nor any member of the league have any intention of violating the rights of a private home. The law they advocate will have to de with the searching of public stores, garages, livery stables, and such public places, where there is reason to believe liquor is sold. The league, Dr. Crabbe says, has no intention of interfering with the an stocks of liquor laid up in homes of citizens for private use.
